Theme/Lesson: Kindness & Thoughtfulness Towards Others

Your objectives in this lesson:

- a.) students will be inspired to show love for each other

- b.) students will realize that during the busiest or most difficult moments, God is sending messages.

Materials needed:

Sticky notes, pencil or markers, book If God Used Sticky Notes, by Chris Shea

Idea:

Put sticky notes on their desk.

-Ask the boys and girls how someone could show kindness to them. List the answers on the board.

-Second ? : How does God show kindness and thoughtfulness to us?

-Read the boys and girls the book If God Used Sticky Notes

-Throughout the year, the teacher puts sticky notes on the children's desks that are "warm fuzzies".

-2nd semester- have students put kind and thoughtful sticky notes on their classmates desk.

Bible passages:

Titus 3:4, 2 Peter 1:7, Romans 11:22, Jeremiah 31:3, John 3:16-17

-Throughout the year have students express their opinions about how they feel when they receive a sticky note.
